lol you are going to use
twenty year old technology to build modern websites
lol maybe for a toy website
good luck w/ that lmao

REST

YOU'RE DOING IT COMPLETELY WRONG.

"I'M GOING TO CREATE A RESTFUL API..."

"USING JSON..."

"HERE ARE MY API DOCS"

Hydration

JUST USING
HTML

*When You wrote
class components
I studied HTML

When you were converting classes to hooks

I mastered ~~The~~ HTML

While you wasted time moving all your client-side logic to server components

I cultivated ~~inner~~ HTML

*And now that the browser won't hydrate
your thick client JSON API you have the audacity to come to me for help?*

HTML

I feel bad for you.

JSON

I don't think about you at all.
